

Why should I hire an attorney to represent me with my injury claim?

“Statistical evidence has established that of all injured railroad workers, the 20% of injured railroad workers who hire attorneys receive 70% of the money paid out by the railroads. The remaining 80% of the injured railroad workers who don’t hire attorneys split only 30% of the money paid out on FELA claims.”

(Statistics provided by the Transportation Research Board, National Research Counsel Special Report 241)